

PRESS RELEASE

CM.com

CM.com appoints Valentijn Rensing as Supervisory Board member

Breda, the Netherlands, 29 May 2026 – CM.com (Euronext Amsterdam: CMCOM), a global Conversational Commerce platform, today announces the appointment of Valentijn Rensing to the Supervisory Board.

With this appointment, the Supervisory Board is extended to six members: Jacques van den Broek (Chair), Mariken Tannemaat (Vice-Chair), Joëlle Frijters, Diederik Karsten, Stephan Nanninga and Valentijn Rensing.

Jacques van den Broek, Chair of the Supervisory Board: “As Members of the Supervisory Board, we welcome the appointment by the Founder Committee of Valentijn Rensing as a new member. We are confident that his enthusiasm and entrepreneurial mindset will add to the experience, expertise and diversity we have as a team to contribute to the further growth of CM.com.”

Jeroen van Glabbeek, CEO: “As founders of CM.com, we believe that the extension of our Supervisory Board with the appointment of Valentijn will contribute to the enhanced commercial focus. Our commercial organization is ready to capitalize on the growth opportunities on the back of the AI adoption and the extension of our Supervisory Board will help us achieve our ambitions. We gladly welcome him to our Supervisory Board and we look forward to growing together.”

In November 2025, Valentijn Rensing took a 3% stake in CM.com following a private placement. The private placement provided CM.com with additional capital to support its balance sheet and accelerate its strategic growth initiatives. At the same time, the longterm shareholder base was further broadened, reflecting confidence in the company’s strategy and market position.

ABOUT VALENTIJN RENSING

Valentijn Rensing (1981) is an entrepreneur, based in Rotterdam (The Netherlands). He founded telecom operator Youfone in 2008. Youfone was sold to KPN in 2023, where Valentijn Rensing continued in the role of CEO of Youfone. Next to the position of CEO of Youfone, Valentijn Rensing is active on the Belgian telecom market under the brand Yoin. Valentijn Rensing also organizes the annual Rotterdam Gala, a well-known benefit gala event.

ABOUT CM.com

CM.com (AMS: CMCOM) is a leading European technology company that helps organizations worldwide improve customer interactions through integrated solutions for communications, payments, and AI. Headquartered in Breda, The Netherlands, CM.com serves customers in more than 100 countries and provides a scalable platform to automate and personalize customer journeys.

For more information please contact us via: investor.relations@cm.com /+31650261626.